

DESIGN

New products to make your house a home

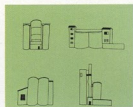

Words Sarah Baldwin

Danish delights

It's certainly true that mid-century Scandinavian style is having a moment, there's barely a contemporary interior in the country that doesn't feature some classic piece or other. The most recent re-launch is Hans J Wegner's CH163 sofa (around £4,121). And manufacturer

Carl Hansen & Son is also adding an iconic shelving system from another Danish master, architect Mogens Koch, to its portfolio. First produced in 1928, the modular units cost £914 (approx £760) each. (+45 6612 1404; carlhansen.com)

CLIMBING THE WALLS

Graphic wallpaper is a simple and effective way to jazz up a minimal scheme. Try the Bird Cages print or go industrial with Cement Works or Building Blocks, all from Baines&Fricker. £120 per 10m roll. (07771 751 370; bainesandfricker.net)

DIARY DATE

For reclaimed furniture and fittings, don't miss the Salvo Fair. It covers everything from architectural salvage and reclaimed building materials, to vintage and mid-century furnishings. Stubbings Estate, Henley Road, Maidenhead SL6 6QL. Sat 23 and Sun 24 June 2012; 11am-5pm. Adults £8 each. (01225 422 300; salvo-fair.com)

British classic

The Ercol Stacking chair was an instant hit when it was first produced in the Fifties. Get into the British spirit in time for the Jubilee-and-Olympics summer with these new patriotic shades. £310 each. (01844 271 800; ercol.com)

